Col Wilson to Visit

The Dillard-Judd Camp 1828 of the SCV will meet on the regular night, the fourth Tuesday, which this month will be Tuesday, 23 March, 2010. The meeting will be at the Putnam County Library, on Broad Street, at 7PM.

We are honored to have Col. Mike Wilson, Upper Cumberland Brigade Commander, as our speaker that night. Commander Wilson has been meeting with interested parties to start the planning process for events to mark the 150th anniversary of the War Between the States. He will update us on what has been discussed so far, and seek our input into the process. We need members to share good ideas and to pitch in to do the work of putting on good events. These will be great opportunities to honor our ancestors and to bring new members to the camp.

Please invite a friend or even a member who hasn't been to a meeting lately. This will be a good time to invite friends or family to see what the SCV is about. The recruiting contest is over but we will always welcome new members who love the South.

UPCOMING EVENTS

April 23, 24, and 25, 2010- Tennessee Division Reunion, hosted by the Benjamin F. Cheatham Camp 72 of Manchester, Tennessee.

FEBRUARY MINUTES

The Dillard- Judd Camp met 23 February, 2010. Division Commander Mike Bradley was the featured speaker. He gave a fascinating presentation on the religious nature of General Nathan Bedford Forrest, putting the facts about Forrest in context of his time and place. All the members and guests were invited to ask questions. Commander Bradley and his talk were well received by all.

Compatriot Ed Butler won the recruiting award and was presented a most handsome knife set, the handle of which was made from wood taken from the Forrest Boyhood Home restoration project. Gerald Myatt, owner of Knife Country and member of Camp 1828, donated the knife that was presented to Ed.

Adjutant Bobb Todd gave an update on finances for the camp, as well as a progress report on membership renewal. Because of an address mix-up, the renewal check to Division and National were not delivered, and had to be re-issued. This resulted in a delay, but almost all member renewals are now completed.
