A MONTHLY PUBLICATION IN THE INTEREST OF
CONFEDERATE VETERAN DESCENDANTS AND KINDRED TOPICS

Official Organ Of The
Samuel R. Watkins Camp #29
Sons of Confederate Veterans

"Once more the Maury Grays are permitted to put their feet upon their native hearth, and to revisit their homes and friends, after having followed their tattered, and torn, and battle-riddled flag, which they had borne aloft for four long years, on every march, and in every battle that had been fought by the Army of Tennessee....But, parents, here are your noble and brave sons; and, ladies, four years ago you gave us this flag, and we promised you 'That we would come back with the flag as victors, or we would come not at all.' We have been true to our promise and our trust. On every battlefield the flag that you entrusted to our hands has been borne aloft by brave and heroic men, amid shot and shell, bloody battle, and death. We have never forsaken our colors. Are we worthy to be called the sons of old Maury county?"

Compatriots,

I would like to take this opportunity to let all of you know that we placed 2nd for the 'Best Newsletter Award'. I was really hoping we could bring home 1st prize but there are many editors with a more agile pen than mine. However, we did gain some national attention and perhaps next year we can blow them away. This is the first time we've ever entered at the National level.

I have always wanted all of you men in the camp (and others who care to read our humble newsletter) to have the most up to date news and stories going on. I also wanted to give you something to be proud of. I thank all of you for your support.

Respectfully Yours,

Jack Taylor, II

2006 SCV REUNION REPORT

The report from our reunion at New Orleans was submitted to me by Camp Surgeon, Ron Shelton who was in attendance and served as our sole delegate. The actual voting numbers written on the date of this notice was given to me by Tennessee division heritage chief, Allen Sullivant.

As follows:

CiC - Chris Sullivan of S.C: 1081; Mike Duminiak of Pa.: 164

Lt CiC - Ron Casteel of Mo., 1039; Tarry Beasley of Tenn., 190

AOT Commander—Charles K. Barrow (uncontested)

AOT Councilman—Edward Butler (no numbers at present); Skip Earle (ditto) The margin of victory for Ed Butler over Skip Earle is reported to have been around 100 votes.

Beasley and Duminiak both requested that the results be recorded as "by acclamation".

Announced CIC Staff Appointments:

Chief of Staff: Don Shelton of Kentucky

Historian: Charles "Chuck" Rand of Louisiana

Adj. in Chief: Mark Simpson of South Carolina

JAG in Chief: Burl McCoy of Kentucky (Has previously served in this position)

Chaplain: No information.

Heritage Defense: Darryl Starnes of Virginia

The Chaplain and Historian are not voting members of the GEC.

Further details will appear in the next Confederate Veteran.

JULY 18TH MINUTES

July 18th marked the 7th official meeting of the year for the Samuel R. Watkins Camp #29, headquartered in Columbia, Tennessee.

7:02PM – meeting begins with prayer, pledge to the U.S. Flag was given along with honorary salute to the Confederate Camp flag.

Commander Kenneth Lovett began the meeting by the reading of the minutes. Adjutant Jack Taylor made note that a mistake was made in the previous month's minutes and that the Camp's finance report was left out. Lovett instructs Taylor to make note of it for upcoming July 18th Minutes. No objections were made for the previous month's minutes.

Taylor goes over the camp finances and states that the largest consumption of the camp funds goes to the newsletter printing and mailing. Camp discusses ways of saving costs on newsletter printing and mailing.

Old Business:

Lovett reads aloud a thank you card from the James Madison Sparkman Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy (headquartered in Columbia, TENN.) thanking the Sam Watkins camp for the preservation work at Rose Hill Cemetery- Russell Cothran makes mention that the camp should thank Mr. Mike Patterson of Ace Hardware of Columbia for their discount on the Concrete used to restore the Confederate section at Rose Hill.

Lovett instructs camp that a previous motion by the camp for the creation of Camp T-shirts was never followed out. He instructs Taylor to follow up on the proposal and get price quotes. Taylor replies that the new pin/patch design could be incorporated or used for the T-shirt design. Discussion was made over the T-shirt design and Pin/Patch design that was submitted by Lovett.

7:25PM - New Business:

Camp goes over the upcoming SCV Convention/Reunion to be held at New Orleans. The new proposed Constitution was brought up and Taylor made mention that this isn't just an amendment but an entirely new re-written Constitution. Along with the new Constitution proposal the following candidates were read aloud to the camp.

Candidates as follows:

Commander In Chief: Chris Sullivan and Mike Dominiak

Lt. Commander: Ron Casteel and Tarry Beasley

AOT Commander: Charles K. Barrow

AOT Councilman: Edward Butler and Skip Earle

Camp is split over Commander in Chief – no one candidate decision was made. Decision made by Camp Commander that the vote would be given to the camp's delegate/s attending convention.

Lt. Commander in Chief: Camp votes in favor of BEASLEY – no objections.

AOT Commander: Camp votes in favor of BARROW – no objections.

AOT Councilman: Camp votes in favor of

BUTLER – no objections.

After much discussion over the proposed new SCV constitution, the Camp voted in the negative and was against. It was noted that the Camp would have to vote in favor or re-adopting old Constitution at the Convention if the 'new' Constitution was not adopted.

8:17PM- Motion made to adjourn; meeting adjourned.

Mississippi SCV Goes To Court Over Beauvoir Home - August 4, 2006

The Mississippi Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans which owns Beauvoir, (the last home of President Jefferson Davis) has filed a lawsuit against St. Paul Travelers Companies Inc., which paid only $180,636.00 in damages sustained to the building during Hurricane Katrina on August 29th, 2005.

It is said that hundreds of lawsuits have been filed against numerous insurance companies because of their refusal to pay out claims. The majority of the Insurance companies state the most of the damage was caused by the monstrous storm surge, which they state isn't or wasn't covered in the policies.

Attorney's for Beauvoir state that the sum received from Travelers Insurance amounts to less than 5% of the combined coverage limits of 4.3 million.

Beauvoir has received $180,636 under its "all-risk" commercial policy issued by a subsidiary of St. Paul Travelers Companies Inc., according to the lawsuit. It said that amount represents less than 5 percent of the combined coverage limits of almost $4.3 million.

Jackson, Miss. Attorney Don Barrett, chairman of the fundraising committee stated, "they way they've treated Beauvoir is the epitome of the bad faith they've exercised against thousands of Mississippians...Beauvoir right now is in danger of collapse in the event of any windstorm because of Travelers' failure to honor policy."

The lawsuit filed by the Mississippi Division is only one side of a long going complaint. The SCV says that Fireline Restoration Inc. of Florida and Charter Oak Fire Insurance Co., a subsidiary of Travelers, negligently misrepresented their services and are in breach of contract. The suit also names Price & Associates of Texas, which adjusted Beauvoir's insurance claim Charter Oak Fire Insurance Company denied the SCV coverage based on 'policy language' that excluded damage from tidal waves and furthermore stated that wind damage is not covered if water contributes.

The suit asks that a Judge order the Insurance company/s cover hurricane damage to Beauvoir's main building, eight other structures, attorney's fees and punitive damages.

Round 2 – Texas State Appeals Court Allows Lawsuit In Confederate Plaque Debate

August 5, 2006

A Texas state appeals court has ruled that the Sons of Confederate Veterans can sue the State over removal of the Confederate plaques that was once in the Texas Supreme Court building.

The Texas Supreme Court building was erected in the 1950's with surplus Confederate pension monies. The plaques which honored Texas Confederate Veterans and heroes was taken down six years ago after complaints by what has been called 'minority lawmakers'.

Gary Bledsoe of the Texas NAACP was quoted as saying, "I think what really upsets folks is the fact that minority people had government do something to help them..." He went on to say, "Clearly, people should get over those issues and not want to cram racially offensive symbols down the throats of racial and ethnic minorities..."

The Texas SCV and other Confederate heritage groups have stated that taking down the plaques was illegal, immoral and the plaques were property of the people. Some have even said that it was like robbing the dead of their honor seeing that the Court House was built on the funds dedicated to Confederate Veterans. Even still, the Texas NAACP has vowed to continue fighting to keep the plaques off the walls of the Courthouse and have said that the recent victory by the Confederate heritage groups is only a temporary victory for them.

There have been a few compromises proposed but those opposed to the plaques have rejected all that have come forward which include replacing the Confederate Battle flag with a Texas battle flag. The NAACP stated that the Texas flag is compromise enough.

Camp,

Our first phase of fundraisers for the 2007 fiscal year has begun! We now have Camp T-shirts available for all who desire to be cool and fashionable. We'll have sizes from small to 3XL.

For those of you who don't wear T-shirts, our camp pins and patches will be going into production quite soon with a very similar image as what will be on our T-shirts (all color of course). We don't have the prices on the pins or patches yet but it has been suggested that they sell for around 5-7 dollars each. Patches will probably sell for around 3-5 dollars each.

All the funds raised from these items will benefit the camp greatly! In order to keep the camp dues low we need to find a way to raise lots of money and use it to help preserve our heritage. Truth of the matter is that we can't do a thing without those Yankee greenbacks!

To order your T-shirts (pins and/or patches will be announced at a later date) just send a letter with number of T-shirts, and size/s needed.

BOBBY HORTON CONCERT - SEPTEMBER 16TH—CANNON COUNTY, ARTS CENTER

The Savage-Goodner Camp #1513 is pleased to announce that on Saturday, September 16, 2006, the Camp and the Arts Center of Cannon County will be hosting Bobby Horton for a concert in Dillon Park near Stones River Hospital in Woodbury, Tennessee. Beginning at 7:30 p.m. that evening, Bobby will transport the audience back in time with music from the period of the War Between the States. Bobby is well known from his series of musical recordings that are sold at National Park Battlefields and other historical sites. Bobby also collaborated with noted film maker, Ken Burns, (and PC Sissy) in his documentaries on the Civil War and baseball. Local camp members and re-enactors will assist in setting the mood for the night. Tickets for the event are $5.00. Tickets should be purchased from members of the Savage-Goodner Camp prior to the event. The Camp receives a portion of the pre-event ticket sales.

You may contact Commander Mike Corley at (615)563-2750 or by e-mail at: mcorley@mtng.com for more information.

You may also send $5.00 per ticket to Commander Corley and he will send the tickets to you via US Mail. Send your payment to:

Commander Mike Corley
210 College Street
Woodbury, TN 37190

DUES ARE NOW DUE!

Please take note that dues for the 2007 fiscal year are due! Regular members are to give 37.00 dollars and life members are to give 17.00 dollars.

A good many of you have already given for the 2007 year and will not have to give again until August 2008.

HOW DUES WORK:

Whether you are Life Member of the SCV or a regular yearly paying dues member, all monies are separated out by the Camp Adjutant. For regular membership, twenty dollars goes to the SCV headquarters, five dollars to the Tennessee Division and the remaining twelve dollars goes to the Camp. Essentially all the camp sees is one dollar per month per member! The newsletter alone is running about 60 cents per issue per month to mail out. Even if we get the newsletter costs down, we are still running on a bare bones budget. Hopefully with our Camp pins, T-shirts and other assorted fund-raisers, we'll be able to attain a nice cushion in our account.

A few of you have been very generous to the camp in the past. I would like to take this time to thank those of you who have always given above and beyond what our yearly dues are. It is because of you that we have been able to accomplish all that we have, and we've accomplished some awesome things. I hope that this year we'll be able to double the camp size.

Everybody try to bring in at least one or two members this year. .

NCAA CONTINUES BAN ON SOUTH CAROLINA—8 / 5 / 06

According to their brochures, The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) is a voluntary organization through which the nation's colleges and universities govern their athletics programs. The organization's purpose is "to govern competition in a fair, safe, equitable and sportsmanlike manner, and to integrate the intercollegiate athletics into higher education so that the educational experience of the student-athlete is paramount." Furthermore, the organization goes on to say that in their core values they are to give, "respect for institutional autonomy and philosophical differences..." and to be "an inclusive culture that fosters equitable participation for student-athletes and career opportunities for coaches and administrators from diverse backgrounds."

With that said, many still question the NCAA's legality in banning South Carolina for flying the Confederate Battle Flag on the South Carolina State House grounds. Very recently, Mr. Robert Vowels Jr. who is head of the NCAA's Minority Opportunity and Interest Committee said he received a letter of request from the 'Black Coaches Association' asking that the ban on the State of South Carolina from hosting baseball, basketball regionals and cross-country championship games, be extended indefinitely. Mr. Vowell announced publicly that he will take the letter seriously and said it is something that the NCAA will continue to push forward.

The so-called boycott on South Carolina was started by the request of National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), which began their so-called boycott on the State in January 2000. The NAACP felt that the battle flag flying over the State house was a justified reason for the boycott... The Legislature voted that spring to move the flag to the Confederate monument in front of the statehouse as a compromise between the people of South Carolina and the NAACP. However, the NAACP has continued its boycott, saying the legislative action did not go far enough and that the flag needed to be moved to a museum. The NCAA fell to the pressure from the group and began their 'boycott' on the State the following year announcing a 'two-year suspension on awarding postseason games to the state'. The ban has continued because officials with the NCAA stated that no major changes had taken place and the NAACP had continued to pressure the association.

EVEN DELAWARE HAD CONFEDERATES —8 / 8 / 06

Many don't realize that the tiny mid Atlantic State of Delaware had numerous troops fight for the Southern side during the American Civil War.

The Delaware Grays Camp #2068 of the SCV has reached an agreement with the Georgetown, Delaware Historical Society to place a monument on the grounds of the Nutter D. Marvel Museum.

Adjutant Robert Eldreth Jr. of the Grays camp said that the monument will be a nine foot tall obelisk depicting the Confederate Battle flag along with the letters 'CSA' and will be flanked with smaller stones depicting the known names of Delaware natives who fought for the Southern side.

Eldreth went on to say that the battle flag depicted on the monument is "an embattled historic symbol... not only does it represent a heritage of a group of people, but it also represents a turn in American history that has been neglected or put aside. It has as valuable a role in history itself as Francis Scott Key sitting in a boat and writing about the bombs bursting in air."

Presently, the Grays have gained over half the funds needed to erect the monument.

License Plate Report From the Tennessee Division Adjutant

Gentlemen of the Tennessee Division,

On 4 August 2006, a deposit was made to our account coming from the State of Tennessee for SCV license plate purchases and renewals. The amount of the deposit was $12,433.52 for 796 plates. I will be forwarding a check for 20% or $2,486.70 to the Tenn. State Museum for the restoration of OUR Confederate flags.

This is a decrease from the same quarter of one year ago of 68 license plate purchases and renewals. I urge every member of the Tennessee Division to purchase a SCV license plate and to renew your plates each year. Our division gets $15.62 for each plate purchase or renewal.

Prior payments to our Division have been:

1st Qtr 04	$14,074.00	for	908 plates	-	2nd Qtr 04	$12,462.00	for	804 plates
3rd Qtr 04	$6,925.00	for	447 plates	-	4th Qtr 04	$6,180.75	for	402 plates

Totals $39,641.75 for 2,561 plates

1st Qtr 05	$15,421.13	for	1,003 plates	-	2nd Qtr 05	$13,284.01	for	864 plates
3rd Qtr 05	$9,055.89	for	589 plates	-	4th Qtr 05	$6,697.50	for	434 plates

Totals $44,585.53 for 2,890 plates

1st Qtr 06	$15,885.54	for	1,017 plates
2nd Qtr 06	$12,433.52	for	796 plates

As you can see, the funds continue to grow, compared with past quarters.

Martin W. Frost, Tenn. Div. Adjutant

LONE PARENT WANTS CONFEDERACY MENTION ERADICATED- 8/8/06

A lone parent by the name of Shay Templeton says that she wants the Midland, Texas Lee Freshman High School to stop using the words Confederate, Dixie and any other mention of the Confederacy.

Lee High school has a drill team called the 'Dixie Dolls'. Dixie is played at home games, the freshman yearbook is called 'The Confederate' and the senior yearbook is called the 'RebeLee'.

Templeton was set to go before the Midland Independent School district meeting on August 8th to address the board with her formal complaint. Templeton says she wouldn't have enrolled her child in the school if she knew about the symbols. She has also stated that many parents didn't know that the yearbook was called 'The Confederate'.

Lee Freshman High School Mascot

Nevertheless, her statements have left many in the community scratching their heads since Lee High school has had that name since 1961. The Battle flag was banned as an official school flag in 1991 but students are allowed to bring them to games since the school district supervisors said it would be a violation of free speech.

SCV BILLBOARD FORCED DOWN—7/17/06

A billboard placed by the South Carolina Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans (SCV) was brought down by political pressure from members of the Darlington, South Carolina, County Council. The sign was erected near the Darlington Speedway timed to be up for the last NASCAR races May 12-13.

The South Carolina SCV paid for the sign advertisement as part of a recruitment initiative. Palmetto Outdoor Media (owner of the billboard) received complaints from Darlington politicians and removed the sign on May 10th, which coincidentally was Confederate Memorial Day. What ensued was a threatened law suit from the SCV. Just after the first NASCAR race, the billboard was put back up by the sign company.

Soon following the sign going back up, the SC Central Railroad who owns the right of way where the sign is located ordered that it be taken down (frame and all) since they felt it was offensive.

SC Division Commander, Randy Burbage informed the membership on July 11, 2006, that their attorney is studying the possibilities of pursuing legal action on the First Amendment rights violation.

HUNLEY UPDATE—8/8/06

Marine Archeologists are saying they have found evidence that the forward hatch of the C.S.S. Hunley may have been opened intentionally by the Commander of the vessel on the night the sub sank just after sinking the U.S.S. Housatonic.

Recent X-rays show that the hatch is opened by about 1/2 inch and it leaves the scientists a few possible explanations as to why the Sub sank.

Lt. George Dixon who was the Commander of the Submarine may have opened the hatch to see if the 40-foot, hand-cranked vessel was damaged when it rammed a spar with a black powder charge into the Union blockade ship on Feb. 17, 1864 or Dixon may have opened the hatch to refresh the air supply.

The C.S.S. Hunley was the first submarine in history to sink an enemy warship and its technology is becoming more and more apparent to scientists as its restoration moves forward.

It has been suggested that Jules Verne may have based his famed novel, "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea" on the Hunley submarine. His novel was published in 1870.
